

Advanced ENT and maxillofacial surgery

Day 1 February 23rd:

How to avoid complications in ear surgery, Oral tumors the difficult cases

Morning: Ear surgery, how to avoid complications

- For a better understanding of middle ear disease in dogs and cats
- Why video-otoscopy of external and middle-ear will change your surgical treatments
- The brachycephalic ears: From special anatomy to ventilation tube placements
- Endoscopic techniques applied to ear surgery

Afternoon: Oral tumors, the difficult cases

- What a proper oral tumor's work-up should be
- Advanced mandibulectomies
- Advanced maxillectomies
- Complications in mandibulect-and maxillectomies

6 pm: Course dinner

Day 2 February 24th: Wet-labs

Morning:

Group 1-5: Oral tumors and reconstruction
Group 6-10: Advanced ear surgery

Afternoon:

Group 6-10: Oral tumors and reconstruction
Group 1-5: Advanced ear surgery

6 pm: End of the class, free evening

Day 3 February 25th: Facial reconstruction and other challenges

Morning: Lectures and clinical cases

- Skin reconstruction
- Nosectomies, orbitectomies, laryngectomies and more...

Afternoon: Wet-labs with focus on reconstruction

6 pm: End of the Master class and Farewell

The course program is subject to last minute slight changes